Release Date and Time: 02/23/2007

Subject: BANK ROBBERY

LPD Case #: 07-1957

Contact: Officer Hettie Schaeffer P.I.O. (209) 329-4897 hschaeffer@pd.lodi.gov or Officer Scott Bratton Sbratton@pd.lodi.gov.

Details: On 02/23/07 at approx. 1700 HRS Officers from the Lodi Police Department responded to a Robbery in progress at the Central State Credit Union. The suspect was described by employees as a Hispanic or African American male (possibly mixed race) with a medium skin tone, balding, grey goatee, approx. 5'6" tall, 170-180 lbs. The suspect was wearing a black jacket with possibly a 49's logo on the front, jeans and sunglasses. The man walked into the bank with a note demanding a specific undisclosed amount of money. Bank employees did not see any weapon though the note claimed he had one. Once the suspect had the money, he fled west through the parking lot and entered a light blue 4-D vehicle. The suspect fled in an unknown direction prior to Police arrival. According to the employees at Central State Credit Union, the suspect had come into the store at around 1500 HRS but abruptly left. The photos attached below are of the suspect.
